Dear Catt,

Join us for these upcoming labyrinth activities!

This Father's Day weekend will find us at the Healthy Living Fair at the Quad City Botanical Center. It begins tonight with the Garden Party, and continues through Saturday and Sunday. Come and learn about the labyrinth, eat great food, buy arts and crafts, play at activities and learn at presentations!

Next Thursday, June 21, we will walk a summer solstice labyrinth at the Unity Church in Moline. The month closes out with our annual board retreat. See the June 3 issue of Circuits for details.

If you aren't yet a Member of Quad-City Labyrinth Project, we invite you to do so and enjoy the many benefits of membership! At just $35 annually, you'll receive discounts on workshops and classes, our newsletter, invitations to members-only events and access to our members-only section of the Web site. Together we can grow the mission of bringing peace in ourselves and our community through the labyrinth!

Peaceful pathways,

Pat McLaughlin, Executive Director

Birdies for Charity Annual Fundraiser

It's not too late to make your pledges! Every year, QCLP participates in the John Deere Golf Classic "Birdies for Charity" Fundraiser. Make your pledge today!

Birdies for Charity

John Deere Golf
Classic
TPC at Deere Run
Silvis, IL

Deadline: July 6, 2007

We are accepting flat dollar donations OR pledges of 1 cent or more for every "birdie" made during the PGA Tour's John Deere Golf Classic, to be held July 9-15 at TPC at Deere Run in Silvis.

Each person who makes a pledge to Birdies for Charity has an opportunity to guess the exact number of birdies that will be made this year. Guess the exact number and you could win a new 2007 Buick Enclave, or one of over 500 other prizes.

All pledges received are donated, so every cent you pledge goes to support the Quad-City Labyrinth Project.

To make a pledge click here to print a pledge card, or contact us at qclabyrinth@aol.com.

Deadline for pledges is July 6, 2007. Thank you all for your ongoing support of the Quad-City Labyrinth Project!

The Garden Party

Preview Night to the Healthy Living Fair

It's also not too late to come and enjoy tonight's Garden Party at the Quad City Botanical Center. Tickets are $25 at the door, and proceeds help support the QCBC. We'll be there with our outdoor labyrinth, enjoying the fabulous natural foods made by area chefs at stations located throughout the gardens. Live music and a silent auction make this a function not to be missed!

6-11 PM

Attend the Friday evening party, and help support the work of the Quad City Botanical Center. Music and gourmet food, a silent auction, and labyrinth walk make a delightful celebration of QCBC and the Quad- City Labryinth Project!

Tonight's festivities will help us kick-off the Father's Day weekend Healthy Living Fair.

Quad City Botanical Center

The Healthy Living Fair

Labyrinth Walk and Information Booth

Quad-City Labyrinth Project will be a featured vendor this weekend at the Healthy Living Fair at the Quad City Botanical Center in Rock Island. Featured will be a dual-path, 3-circuit Newgrange pattern labyrinth created with flowers. Be sure to stop by our booth for free finger labyrinths and our latest Calendar of Events!

The free community event will present information about healthy living "from the ground up" and will feature environmentally friendly products and produce, gardening goods and services, outdoor recreation opportunities, innovative energy methods, and holistic, alternative and integrative medicine.

Saturday opens with a community-wide yoga class. Also on Saturday, shop and visit the Garden Art Exhibition, showcasing nature-inspired art by local and regional artists for sale and viewing. On Sunday, shop for fresh produce and baked goods at a farmer's market.

Moline, IL 61265

Thursday, June 21,
2007
6-9 PM

We'll be walking the outdoor labyrinth at the Unity Church in Moline, surrounded by candalaria as we watch the sunset on this summer's solstice.

Indulge your creative spirit by making art at our Creative Arts station in the Unity Family Cafe.

June 21st is also known as Litha, or St. John's Day, and marks the zenith of the sun and the longest day of the year. Celebrating this day of the sun's fullest power helps to strengthen our connection to the Earth's seasons and rhythms.

Families are welcome to walk from 6-7 PM. Adults are also welcome during this time if they are not disturbed by playful activity on or around the labyrinth.

For those who prefer a quieter environment, we have designated the hours fo 7-9 PM as contemplative time.
